GUIDE TO THE READER

This instrument is organized in six parts: Foundations (Articles I–XI), governing language, designations, and the daily liturgies; The London Deployment (Articles XII–XVI), governing the term abroad; The Law of Disputes (Articles XVII–XXI); Culture and Economy (Articles XXII–XXVII); The Future (Articles XXVIII–XXX); and the Closing Provisions (Articles XXXI–XXXII), followed by the Exhibits and Schedules.

Citations in the form (dd/mm/yy) refer to the documentary record: 305,002 WhatsApp messages spanning 6 May 2023 – 27 July 2023 and 5 December 2024 – 2 September 2026, read in their entirety, line by line, for the preparation of this instrument. All quotations are verbatim. The Parties are advised that the record remembers everything, and that this is, on balance, wonderful news.

Nothing in this document is legally binding. Everything in it is true.

THIS RELATIONSHIP AGREEMENT (the “Agreement”) is made and entered into with retroactive effect from the 5th day of January, 2023, by and between RIDIT NIMDIA of Thakur Village, Kandivali East, Mumbai — founder, certified Batman, and numbers man — and KAAJAL RAI of Borivali, Mumbai — engineer, gold medallist of every argument that matters, Imperial College London Class of 2027, and holder of more titles than the British peerage (Schedule C).

The Parties, having exchanged three hundred five thousand and two (305,002) documented messages, 9,639 declarations of love, approximately 469 hours of calls, and one (1) shared civilization complete with its own language, currency, judiciary, and national bird (the penguin), hereby reduce said civilization to writing.

ARTICLE I — DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

In which the vocabulary of a private civilization is given legal force.

1.1 In this Agreement, unless the context requires otherwise (it never does):

- (a) “Ilommu” means “I love you,” as coined, conjugated, and improved beyond recognition by the Parties (see Schedule B, the Ilommu Conjugation Table). It is the single most-used word in the 305,002-message record.
- (b) “Home” means the other Party. All physical addresses — including, without limitation, any London postcode — are hereby reclassified as temporary lodging. “You’re my home... Bed nah ho. Home ho.” (the Girlfriend, 03/03/25); “Home is where we are together, not just the place” (jointly, 27/05/26).
- (c) “Baby” means either Party, being the default legal term of address (documented usage: 23,535 instances). Provided that the title of THE Baby vests exclusively and non-transferably in Kaajal Rai, per her own repeated filings: “ME I AM THE BABY.”
- (d) “Puchu” means a kiss; “Puchued” is its formal receipt. The Puchu Bracelet is no mere accessory but a sacred and protective instrument (Article X).
- (e) “Katti” means a declared state of play-hostilities, statutorily capped at fifteen (15) minutes (Article XVII). “Fwens?” constitutes a legally binding ceasefire offer. “Manaofy” (v., coined by the Boyfriend, in continuous use since 13/05/25) means to make up, and is the only recognized exit from katti.
- (f) “Issok” means the matter is closed and may not be re-litigated, exceptions requiring a formally convened cuddle.
- (g) “Peash” is the house spelling of “please.” Requests filed in peash format receive priority processing; a triple-peash constitutes an emergency motion, deniable only in writing, with reasons, and a puchu.
- (h) “Dahi Macchli” has the meaning given in Article V, which every reader of this document already knows.
- (i) “Bournville” means the official currency of the union (Article XXII). “Cheese cube” is the Boyfriend’s customary unit for measuring love: “Ilommu more than I love cheese cubes.”
- (j) “ZG 🍷” means the Girlfriend as she appears in the Boyfriend’s contacts; “Zazzy” means the Boyfriend as coined by the Girlfriend (04/03/25).

1.2 Interpretation. Within this jurisdiction, “me love you” is certified correct English, “apprekate” is grandfathered in as a correct spelling, and headings are for convenience only, except the cute ones, which are binding. Words like “yaayie” shall carry no fewer than three redundant vowels; suspiciously flat acknowledgments (“nice”) are a compliance violation.

1.3 The Full Name Rule. “Kaajal Rai” may be invoked for exactly two purposes: mock-formality and courage. Upon invocation for courage, the recipient is contractually reminded that being Kaajal Rai is reason enough. Casual bare “Kaajal” and “Kaaju” remain prohibited by her own standing order: “I’m not kaaju I’m Kaajal Rai.”

ARTICLE II — RECITALS AND PRECEDENT INSTRUMENTS

In which it is proven that the Parties have been drafting this Agreement themselves for years.

WHEREAS, on 20 March 2025, the Girlfriend authored and executed a founding Contract providing that “no takesie backsies are allowed henceforth regarding this lawful and foolproof contract,” pledging to protect the Boyfriend “with a cute face and secret sword stashed at all times,” and the Boyfriend signed (🖋️👁️📱) and promised to “add clauses soon” — and then, in the finest tradition of the legal profession, did not;

WHEREAS the present document constitutes said clauses, delivered approximately eighteen (18) months late, with compound interest, in the form of every Article below;

WHEREAS the Boyfriend has previously cited “Daddy Baby interaction laws as per Contract Second Amendment, Section-II Part B.A” (24/12/24), invented Boyfriend Rule No. 27 on the spot, demanded a written agreement over a copied sticker (22/06/26), and once required a signed contract before a hypothetical jetpack flight (11/01/25) — the counter-party lawfully securing mid-air cuddle rights in the same negotiation;

WHEREAS on 30 June 2026 the Parties independently ratified a verbal domestic accord (dinner together: “non negotiable, it’s a marriage”), and on 31 August 2026 the Girlfriend authored an eleven-point schedule of long-distance commitments and asked the Boyfriend to add anything missing — this entire Agreement being his answer;

WHEREAS the Boyfriend compared the Parties to Sheldon and Amy as early as July 2023 (“you already see me in the same way Amy sees Sheldon”), and thanked her in writing on 23/02/26 “for being the Amy to my Sheldon”, rendering this document canonically inevitable;

AND WHEREAS Dr. Sheldon Lee Cooper’s Relationship Agreement ran thirty-one (31) pages, and this one runs thirty-two (32), because this relationship is, empirically, one page better;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual puchus herein exchanged, the sufficiency of which is acknowledged at 174 kiss emojis per message (precedent of 04/02/25), the Parties agree as follows.

2.1 Supersession. This Agreement repeals and replaces the Contract of 20/03/25, the Contract Second Amendment (Section-II Part B.A), all sticker-usage settlements, and Boyfriend Rules 1 through 27 — which are incorporated by reference as founding documents of this jurisdiction. The Grievance Portal remains the court of appeals; teddy-bear-rose-and-chocolate settlements remain admissible.

ARTICLE III — TERM, PERMANENCE AND THE ABSENCE OF EXIT

The shortest article, because there is the least to negotiate.

3.1 Term. This Agreement is effective as of 5 January 2023 (retroactively, the day the Girlfriend was officially phasaoed) and continues in perpetuity.

3.2 Termination. There isn't one. This Agreement contains no exit provisions, sunset dates, or escape hatches. Per the record: "This is forever, you and me. You don't have a way out." Counsel has reviewed and concurs. Counsel is also one of the Parties, but that is not a conflict of interest; it is the whole point.

3.3 The Permanence Clause. No dispute, regardless of magnitude, may place the relationship itself on the table. The table is reserved exclusively for snacks. All exit-adjacent vocabulary is void ab initio.

3.4 Zoological basis. Both Parties are hereby recognized as penguins (Article XXIX). Penguins mate for life. The Parties note this is binding precedent and decline to appeal.

"We're endgame." — the record, passim

ARTICLE IV — OFFICIAL DESIGNATIONS, STYLES AND TITLES

A registry of who these two people actually are.

4.1 Superhero Division. Ridit Nimdia is contractually Batman — never Superman, per his own renunciation of January 2025 — a finding independently re-proven by the Girlfriend from evidence (odd hours; working to make Gotham better; cool secretive eyes): "It all points towards just one thing, You ARE batman" (30/11/25). Kaajal Rai holds the concurrent titles of Robin (conferred 25/06/25: "I'm Batman. And you're my Robin") and Batgirl, with permanent cheering privileges. Her own birthday card ruling stands: "Ridit Nimdia. The man, the legend. AND THE MY BATMAN."

4.2 Legal Drama Division. The Parties are formally designated Harvey and Donna. The signature block identifies the Boyfriend as "the best closer this city's ever seen" (citation: him, constantly). The Girlfriend may invoke Donna Privilege ("I know everything. I'm Donna") exactly once per disagreement, which ends it.

4.3 Zootopia Division. The Parties are Judy and Nick, as mathematically proven by the JU/DY birthday theorem of 30/11/25, which earned its discoverer an all-caps commendation. All renaming proposals of the kind advanced require unanimous consent, and shall not receive it.

4.4 Styles of the Girlfriend. Her honorifics — including Princess Penelope Penguin the First, Queen of Kingdoms Princess of Hearts, Princess of Penguland, Puffi the Penguin (conferred 03/01/26), honeybell dewball, and honey pumpkin latte cupcake waffle bean maple syrup — may be added to at any time but never revoked. Misaddressing is remediable only by forehead puchu.

4.5 The Nickname Factory. The Boyfriend's right to coin absurd nicknames is preserved in perpetuity, subject to the acceptance-ballot procedure ("Hiii babyasta. That's your new name. Do you accept?"). Rejected names — see hubbu, ruled cringe on 05/01/25 — enter the public registry of failed legislation, where they are mourned by no one.

4.6 Heritage terms. "Jaan" is granted Protected Heritage Word status: no longer everyday currency, it may be withdrawn from the vault only for moments that genuinely deserve it, which keeps its exchange rate extremely high. Custody of "bubu" — his name for her in 2023, hers for him since — was settled by the dudu/bubu ruling of 05/10/25 and is entered as binding precedent.

4.7 Team designations. Membership of Team Daddy and Team Baby is permanent and irrevocable (“Issok, I team daddy always”). Before any meeting, pitch, exam, or viva, the non-participating Party shall issue the designated cheer: “All best daddy” / “All best baby,” walls of 🙏 counting double.

ARTICLE V — THE DEPARTURE PROTOCOL (DAHI MACCHLI)

The single most important safety system ever built from curd and fish.

5.1 No Party shall exit any dwelling, vehicle, campus, examination hall, or time zone without initiating the sequence — “Dahi macchli sone ki takka 🙏🌀” — first placed on record by the Girlfriend on 16/07/2023 and answered, always and without exception, by “Dahi Macchli 🌀🙏.” The counter-party must respond within one message. Documented compliance: 800+ occurrences and counting.

5.2 The word “milk” is prohibited before leaving the house for any work; “dahi” is the sole approved substitute (superstition codified 28/02/25, and this Agreement does not argue with results).

5.3 Blessings may be administered by proxy to parents, sisters, entire travel parties, and aircraft. A departure that somehow escapes unblessed shall be blessed retroactively, at double strength, with the 🌀 seal affixed.

5.4 London extension. The Protocol survives all borders. A blessing transmitted from IST is valid in GMT without conversion, exchange fee, or customs declaration. Heathrow is hereby notified.

“You shouldn’t say “milk” before leaving house for any work... Say dahi.” — the Girlfriend, 28/02/25

ARTICLE VI — TERMS OF SLEEP AND THE GOODNIGHT LITURGY

Because no fight, exam, or continent has ever cancelled it.

6.1 Neither Party may lose consciousness without executing both components, in canonical order: “Goodnight Sweet Dreams I love you 🙏” followed by “Om Sai Ram 🙏🌀.” Partial recitations constitute material breach, per the “You forgot 3 words” ruling of 27/02/25. Estimated historical compliance: six hundred-plus consecutive nights, including — and this is the load-bearing fact of this entire document — mid-fight, at 2:17 a.m., on the worst night on record.

6.2 The Om Sai Ram Invariant. No disagreement, however heated, suspends the goodnight ritual. This clause has never been breached in recorded history and is hereby declared unbreachable, unamendable, and non-negotiable.

6.3 Pre-emptive filing. The formula may be lodged early, “just in case I fall asleep.” Falling asleep on call is a protected activity; standing permission exists to call even then.

6.4 University Long-Distance Amendment. Asynchronous delivery across time zones is authorized, provided both parts arrive before the recipient’s sunrise. The night, like the Parties, is hereby declared continuous between Mumbai and London.

6.5 Nocturnal Transmissions Rider. Messages sent between 2:00 and 5:00 a.m. are protected speech — fully admissible as evidence of love, wholly inadmissible as evidence of grammar. The record shows the Boyfriend’s sincerest material ships in this window (the 4:11 a.m. birthday letter; the 4:35 a.m. “miss wifey” transmission; several unscheduled lectures on divisibility by 19).

ARTICLE VII — COMMUNICATIONS PROTOCOL

Texting, calling, deep work, and the correct handling of a suspicious silence.

7.1 Text before call. A text precedes a call; a declared goodnight closes the switchboard. The code phrase “parents here” is legally binding and self-executing. One (1) missed call shall never be entered into evidence as diminished love — the record already carries 707 of them, all forgiven, cumulatively.

7.2 The Deep Work Disclosure Act. Focus blocks are honorable and protected, but shall be announced with a start time and an estimated time of re-emergence, like a very handsome submarine. Proper recitation of the entry phrase — “I love you baby, I’ll miss you while I’m away for deep work mode” — lawfully suspends reply-time obligations until surfacing. Exit requires a puchu. Calendars shall be shared so that nobody waits in the dark.

7.3 The Mood Weather Service. Terse replies shall be accompanied by a forecast (“busy, not angry, 40% chance of hugs by 6 p.m.”), rendering the question “are you angry?” constitutionally unnecessary — though still permitted, because it is cute.

7.4 The Disclosure Doctrine. Changes of plan, location, or guest list shall be transmitted BEFORE they occur, not archaeologically reconstructed afterward. Advance notice of boring information is hereby declared romantic.

7.5 The Anti-Assumption Accord (ratified 26/01/25). Neither Party shall render decisions on the other’s behalf based on predicted reactions; all data shall be shared and faced jointly. “Okie. I’ll not assume.”

7.6 Guaranteed Response. The query “Baby, sab theek hoga na?” has exactly one legally valid answer — “Yes baby 🌀🌀” — deliverable at any hour, from any time zone, with no rate limit.

ARTICLE VIII — EMOJI AND TONE JURISPRUDENCE

An early-warning system, drafted with maximum tenderness.

8.1 A “:)” issued by the Boyfriend is presumed sinister until proven friendly (formal request to cease filed 20/06/25 and honored herein). A “lol” or plain smiley issued by the Girlfriend is presumed literal laughter. Ambiguous punctuation entitles either Party to one free clarifying question, no penalty.

8.2 Pursuant to the disclosure of 03/02/25 — “I say okay when I’m pissed” — the full spelling “okay,” an unaccompanied period, and suspiciously formal endearments are recognized as formal Notice of Displeasure, triggering automatic manaofication procedures under Article XVII rather than escalation. This is an early-warning system that triggers care. It keeps no score.

8.3 The 🌀 is designated the Official Seal of this Agreement. Any compliment exceeding a defined cuteness threshold must be nazar-proofed with the Seal before transmission (“Thuu thuu nazar na lage”). Safety-critical communications are considered legally delivered only when Sealed.

8.4 All good news, however minor, shall be received with a Yaayie of no fewer than three redundant vowels. Structural instability in the spelling (“Okayyyieieieiei”) is a feature, not a defect.

ARTICLE IX — THE MEAL AUDIT AND DIETARY COMPLIANCE FRAMEWORK

“Khana khaya?” — the constitutional question.

9.1 Each Party holds unlimited daily rights to audit the other’s caloric compliance. “I’ll eat later” is not admissible evidence. In London, audits convert to time-shifted written depositions with photographic exhibits.

9.2 Kasam supremacy. Kasams issued by the Girlfriend carry the force of law, having a documented success rate exceeding all central legislation. Thursday remains egg-free in perpetuity; Ekadashi is observed every fifteen days with the cheek-kisses-only rider activating automatically. The Boyfriend shall consult the Ekadashi calendar before ordering eggs (see the Omelette Incident, 15/03/26, resolved with zero omelettes since).

9.3 The Kurkure Precedent. Vows with self-declared one-week terms (“Ab se main kabhi Kurkure nahi khaunga. Agle 1 week ke liye”) are cited as what NOT to do. Nevertheless, the household shall maintain an emergency Kurkure reserve.

9.4 The Cream Allocation Protocol (sworn 19/03/25). In any cream-biscuit scenario, cream vests 100% in the Girlfriend; the Boyfriend retains the biscuit and the moral high ground, in that order. “I’ll have the biscuit. So you can have the creme.”

9.5 State beverage. Kokum sharbat is designated the official state beverage of the relationship; its wine disguise remains a protected trade secret (“It is kokum sharbat 🍷. Don’t tell no one”). Sukhi puri and geeli pappi remain an integral, non-severable part of this love, per the ruling of the Girlfriend, which nobody is appealing.

9.6 Standing debts. The Schedule of Culinary Liabilities (Schedule D) — one masala dosa summit, one momo party, and one panipuri excursion — remains payable on demand, non-transferable, accruing hunger at a compounding rate. “Fueeo rocheer” shall summon a date within seven business days.

ARTICLE X — AFFECTION SERVICE-LEVEL AGREEMENT

Deliverables, receipts, and the audited transmission of affection.

10.1 The Puchu Bracelet. The matching bracelets, brought from the mandir and worn for protection from evil spirits, are sacred instruments and are recognized as such by this Agreement. The rite — “Puchu bracelet” answered by “Puchued 🌀💍” — is a blessing exchanged upon them, valid across all borders and time zones; the bracelets shall be recharged at source (Schedule D, Shirdi entry). Forehead puchus retain premium status.

10.2 Quotas. The daily kiss quota is set at “unlimited,” with no rollover needed. Lip placement is default, not premium tier (standing policy, 20/10/25). Nightly massages and periodic sunrise coffee service are mutual obligations with 100% historical intent-to-comply.

10.3 Audit rights. Either Party may demand a full recount of transmitted kisses and huggies at any time. The precedents are established: 174 kiss emojis in a single message (04/02/25); 45 hugs answered with “MORE”; and the historic one-less-huggie detection of 27/07/2023, prosecuted successfully at the scene. A deficit of even one (1) huggie is actionable and must be remedied at 200% interest.

10.4 The Random Compliment Mandate. “Aap bohot sundar ho” shall continue to be issued at statistically unpredictable intervals, in perpetuity, no occasion or provocation required, nazar-proofing mandatory.

10.5 Reciprocity of Ilommu. Any “I love you,” tagged or untagged, shall be returned within sixty seconds regardless of ongoing hostilities. Escalations (Ilommuest, mostest, shommunommu) must be answered at equal or greater intensity within a commercially reasonable time (Schedule B).

10.6 Pending engineering proposals. The Feviquik Adhesion Proposal of 07/01/26 remains under technical review by the Standards Committee, which is two penguins in a trench coat.

ARTICLE XI — HEALTH, MEDICINE AND THE WAKIE SERVICE

The Ministry has been in continuous session since 2023.

11.1 Kaajal Rai holds the permanent cabinet post of Chief Medical Compliance Officer (est. 2023, tablet-reminder division). Alarms are mandatory; warm water with ajwain is the first-line treatment in the house pharmacopoeia; and the standing doctrine holds: “No popping pills for everything.” AI consultations, while permitted, do not constitute a doctor.

11.2 The Circadian Accord. Bedtime perjury is a recognized offense with a two-witness standard (the Girlfriend counts as both witnesses): “2:30?” — “Not before 3 I know” — “Liesssss.” The wakie service remains exclusively licensed to her, and “Utho babyyyy. Conquer world karo” is the only legally valid alarm tone. The Boyfriend’s 2026 conversion to “morning kid” is entered in the record as a rare, fully-won campaign — hers.

11.3 The Caffeine Clause. Coffee shall be black, sugar-free, and treated as critical infrastructure (“There’s something so nice about powdered water. Aah. Chills”). Per the Kaajal Amendment of 2026, consumption caps at one cup per day whenever the stomach files an objection; Kopiko is recognized as a lawful workaround, subject to review by the Officer, who is watching.

11.4 The Helmet Covenant (sworn New Year’s Eve 2025, on kasam). The Boyfriend shall wear a helmet on every ride, without exception, forever.

11.5 Movement hours. The Girlfriend’s daily yoga/gym slot is a legislated no-meeting zone; calls scheduled against it are void ab initio. Streaks shall be cheered, never audited — the standing commentary being “we hot power couple” — and her documented 140-of-180-day record is entered as Exhibit: Discipline, Hers.

11.6 Protection portfolio. External threats are his department; soul maintenance is hers — “I protect us externally and you protect our soul” (right hand, left hand). Solo hazardous activities are prohibited; all future adventures require both signatories physically present, ideally under one insufficiently large umbrella, per the standing request of the Boyfriend to share a tiny umbrella for all his life.

ARTICLE XII — THE LONDON DEPLOYMENT

Territory expansion, not departure. The partnership opens its first international office.

12.1 On 23 September 2026 — a date selected by the family pandit ji and therefore beyond appeal — the Girlfriend deploys to Imperial College London for her masters, in the number-one program on Earth in her field, secured by her own two hands across a two-year campaign that this document has watched with its jaw on the floor. Her relocation to Chapter Ealing shall be recorded as an expansion of the partnership's territory, not a departure from it.

12.2 Mumbai is designated Home Base; London is designated Field Office. Time-zone differentials do not constitute grounds for reduced affection. For the avoidance of doubt: London runs five and a half hours behind IST (four and a half in British Summer Time, which is not real summer, and the Parties should not be fooled by it).

12.3 The permanent-settlement question is formally tabled as Open Item No. 1, to be resolved by future joint session of the Parties — and by nobody else's parents. Until then the governing principle is the one the Parties already wrote: we put each other before the cities or places.

12.4 Precedent. On 11 June 2023, the Boyfriend joked, “apan kabhi London jayenge naa.” The conversion of this joke into a world-class postgraduate admission establishes that jokes made within this partnership carry a documented conversion rate to reality, and shall be archived accordingly. (The Boyfriend has separately been caught researching London hotels, 25/01/26. The court draws the obvious inference, and smiles.)

“You literally going to world's 2nd best college.” — the Boyfriend, who rounds her up, always

ARTICLE XIII — THE CONTACT PROTOCOL (LONG-DISTANCE OPERATING SYSTEM)

They have beaten distance twice. This is the patch notes for round three.

13.1 Standing Parliament. Video calls constitute the Official Parliament of this relationship; quorum is two visible faces. The daily call is a standing meeting that neither Party may decline without a rescheduled slot. The historical record — 2,979 video calls totalling roughly 373 hours — establishes minimum viable connectivity for the London term.

13.2 Recognized session types. Silent video calls while working are full-value quality time. A “2 mins face?” request may not be denied twice consecutively. “Poof?” retains emergency priority in all time zones. Falling asleep on call remains a protected activity in both hemispheres.

13.3 Notification sovereignty. Per the request of the record — “Turn mine on when I'm in London?” — each Party's notifications for the other remain ON for the duration of the deployment. This is the only notification category exempt from all productivity regimes, deep work included.

13.4 The anniversary jurisdiction rule. The 5th of January shall be observed at IST midnight regardless of either Party's coordinates, because the relationship was incorporated in IST and does not recognize daylight savings as a defense (see the 12:00:10 a.m. precision record of 05/01/25, wished “to the exact secondddddd”).

13.5 The Wordle Provision. The custom-built daily Wordle is designated the official long-distance minigame. The Parties note for the record that on 17/08/26 they independently selected the same word —

“dahi puri” — on the day she craved it, and that no further evidence of connection is required by this or any court.

ARTICLE XIV — THE VISIT DOCTRINE

The most-repeated promise in 305,002 messages, now in writing.

14.1 Visits are a fixed cost, not a discretionary expense. The Boyfriend shall fly to the Girlfriend wherever on Earth she is stationed, for as long as she is stationed there — the vow first sworn on 03/01/25 and restated across the record more often than any other promise: “You promise you’ll keep visiting me in another country?” — “Yes yes yes yes.”

14.2 Distance between the Parties shall be measured in days-until-next-flight, never in kilometres. Seventeen-hour itineraries are pre-approved; whining about them is not.

14.3 The phrase “baby please understand” is hereby stricken from the Boyfriend’s permitted vocabulary in all scheduling contexts, per the undertaking of 29/04/26, which this Agreement converts from promise to statute.

14.4 Deliverables of the first London year (non-exhaustive): at least one Christmas with lights, church bells, and full vibes; one candlelight dinner within sight of the Thames; long hotel-room conversations of the kind the record describes as the actual point of travel; and physical delivery of all puchus accumulated since the previous visit.

“Physical distance will never cause any problem.” — the record, sworn jointly

ARTICLE XV — FLIGHT TELEMETRY, SAFETY AND THE ARMORY

Because “Home 🏠💞” is the most beautiful two-emoji sentence ever written.

15.1 All journeys shall be reported in stages — boarded, wheels-up, landed, baggage, blessed. International flights receive the full protocol, with Dahi Macchli clearance required before pushback (Article V). “Landed 💞🏠” is due wheels-down plus fifteen minutes; “Home 🏠💞” within minutes of arrival, in any hemisphere.

15.2 The Armory. The pepper spray and the really sharp pair of scissors remain sanctioned equipment. London customs permitting, the armory travels with her. The Boyfriend endorses this policy at the highest available volume.

15.3 Reptile Response. Upon lizard detection at any latitude, the Boyfriend is on call in any time zone for moral support, tactical consultation, and post-incident debriefing. (His own record on the species — the hundred-layer tape fortification of 17/05/2023, and the later adoption of one “Lizzy” as family — establishes him as the relationship’s foremost, if conflicted, herpetological authority.)

15.4 Spiritual coverage. Each Party maintains standing, round-the-clock prayer coverage on the other, in mirrored wording where possible (“Protect my baby” — “Protect MY baby, Bhagwaanji 💞🏠. Always”). Evil-eye deflection is provided free of charge, in unlimited quantity, across all time zones.

ARTICLE XVI — ANNEX K: THE ELEVEN COMMITMENTS, RATIFIED

Authored by Kaajal Rai, 31 August 2026. Adopted here verbatim in spirit, unanimously.

16.1 On 31 August 2026 — days before deployment — the Girlfriend authored an eleven-point schedule of long-distance commitments, including, without limitation: NEVER sleeping angry, no matter what, and no pretence either; daily video calls; turning to God and to each other, rather than to outsiders; and acknowledging effort. She then asked the Boyfriend to add anything missing.

16.2 The Eleven Commitments are hereby adopted in full, passed unanimously by a vote of 2–0 (the penguin babies abstaining, being asleep), and elevated to constitutional rank. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to conflict with them; in any conflict, hers control.

16.3 For the record, this entire thirty-two-page instrument is the Boyfriend’s formal answer to “add anything missing.” He would like the minutes to reflect that he did not miss much, because she had already written the important parts — which has, historically, always been the case.

“NEVER SLEEPING ANGRY no matter what, and no pretence either.” — Annex K,
Commitment the First

ARTICLE XVII — THE KATTI STATUTE AND MANAOFICATION PROCEDURES

Codifying the fastest-resolving legal system on Earth.

17.1 Any declared katti carries a statutory maximum duration of fifteen (15) minutes, after which frens status is automatically restored, with or without the consent of the sulking Party. Counter-katti (“you can’t katti back”) is regulated per existing case law, which is extensive, contradictory, and adorable.

17.2 Manaofication proceedings must commence within twelve (12) hours of any disagreement. Approved methods include, but are not limited to: puchus, cheek kissus, stickers, escalating bribes (hug → cheek kissu → Bournville → 🍷), and one devastating deployment of “you are the love of my life,” which has never once failed.

17.3 The interrogative “Fwens?” constitutes a legally binding ceasefire offer. Acceptance may be signalled by “Okie now we frens again,” by sticker, or by simply resuming the conversation as if nothing happened, which is the traditional method.

17.4 Once “Issok” has been uttered and accepted, the matter is closed and may not be re-litigated. Exceptions require a formally convened cuddle, minimum duration twenty (20) seconds, no multitasking.

ARTICLE XVIII — RULES OF ENGAGEMENT FOR DISPUTES

For the ten percent of disagreements that are real, a constitution built from fifty fights’ worth of wisdom.

18.1 The Cinderella Clause. No new grievance may be filed after 12:00 midnight. All pending disputes convert automatically to cuddles at the stroke of twelve and resume, if anyone still remembers them, after breakfast. (The record shows the Parties’ biggest fights all ignited after midnight; the record also shows a certain Party has self-diagnosed this exact pattern, and the other Party has co-signed it. Science has spoken.)

18.2 The Anti-Space Provision. “Space” is stricken from the remedies list, per approximately fifty (50) prior rulings of the Boyfriend, all consistent. Silence shall be replaced with a status update, however grumpy — “mad, alive, will return” satisfies the requirement in full.

18.3 Litigation limits. Message-tag evidence remains admissible, but full transcript re-enactments are capped at one (1) per dispute. After that, the tribunal adjourns for hugs and the record is sealed. Both Parties are hereby recognized as forensic re-litigators of championship calibre, and are lovingly requested to retire.

18.4 The banned-words registry. The vocabulary jointly retired by the Parties across 2025–2026 remains retired in perpetuity. The words themselves do not appear in this Agreement, because that is the entire point of banning them. Violations are payable in Bournville, with interest compounding hourly. Parents and finances remain permanently inadmissible as fight material, per the rule of 08/06/25.

18.5 The 11:55 p.m. Protocol. On birthdays and anniversaries, a five-minute-early alarm is mandated, with wishes delivered at 12:00:00 sharp. Movies with family are hereby ruled an inadmissible defense. The Boyfriend requests the record reflect that he wrote this clause about himself, voluntarily, and that the alarm is already set.

18.6 No endings. No dispute may place the relationship itself on the table (Article III). Exit-adjacent vocabulary spoken in anger is void, unprosecutable, and — per the Parties’ own pact of 25–26/04/26 — retired alongside harsh names, forever.

ARTICLE XIX — REMEDIES: THE REPAIR MENU (SCHEDULE R)

An escalating schedule of repairs, applied proportionally to offense severity.

19.1 The approved instruments of repair, in ascending order of gravity: (i) puchu; (ii) cheek kissu; (iii) sticker of documented cuteness; (iv) numbered apology, with the numbering answering her numbered asks (precedent: the matched lists of 19/02/25, kept on file by the Boyfriend “for future fights,” which this Agreement finds both efficient and deeply romantic); (v) grievance-portal filing; (vi) teddy-rose-chocolate deployment; (vii) working software, shipped to production.

19.2 The Repair Blitz Amnesty. Repeated calling or BABY-spam during an active repair attempt shall be read as love, not harassment, and is capped — generously — at fifteen (15) calls per three (3) minutes (precedent: 11/03/25) and twenty-five (25) consecutive BABYs (precedent: 16/05/25; the phone, it later emerged, had merely gotten wet).

19.3 The rose tradition. Ten-rose bouquets remain the ceremonial instrument of major reconciliation, a tradition in force since 23 April 2023, the anniversary of which the Girlfriend can recite from memory, because of course she can.

19.4 The Nariyal Paani Provision (grandfathered, 2023 vintage). Care obligations are non-suspendable during disagreements of any magnitude: “I’ll get you nariyal paani even if I’m angry at you.” This is governing precedent for every clause in this Article.

“I’m cute and you’re stupid. Together, Cupid.” — closing argument, undefeated

ARTICLE XX — THE ONE-JOKE RULE AND THE VENTING PROTOCOL

Two small statutes with outsized approval ratings.

20.1 The One-Joke Rule. Upon receipt of a declared discomfort, the joke in progress may be finished but shall spawn no sequels, spin-offs, or extended universes. Certain caterpillars are permanently retired from the protein category and shall enjoy their retirement unbothered.

20.2 The Venting Protocol. During a declared vent, the Boyfriend is contractually Team Kaajal (“Then take my side when I’m venting to you” — ruling of 21/01/26; model compliance: “I am team you,” 22/02/26). Devil’s-advocacy services are available strictly by written request, submitted no earlier than twenty-four (24) hours post-vent. The reciprocal protection applies in full: when he is at his lowest, she is contractually his cornerwoman (Article XXX), and towel-throwing is not in her contract and never will be.

20.3 The Transparency Accord. New acquaintances of the historically-suspicious gender are disclosed proactively and voluntarily; in exchange, jealousy shall be filed in complete sentences rather than monosyllables, and processed with reassurance within one business hour. The Parties note this trade has settled every such matter in the record within a day, and see no reason to change a winning formula.

ARTICLE XXI — STICKER WARFARE AND POLL ADJUDICATION

Rules of engagement for the artillery divisions.

21.1 Sticker exchanges exceeding thirty (30) consecutive rounds shall be adjudicated by binding WhatsApp poll, per the great precedent of 11/03/25, in which a ninety-sticker engagement was ended by a poll titled “Shutup” offering the options Yes, No, and Yesterday — each of which received exactly one vote, from an electorate of two. Constitutional scholars are still working on it.

21.2 “Yesterday” shall appear on every ballot, in perpetuity.

21.3 The sticker-verse of Meownardo di Caprio and associates is recognized as protected cultural heritage. Copying an opponent’s sticker without licence remains actionable (see the written-agreement demand of 22/06/26, now satisfied by this instrument, which the Boyfriend notes is the most expensive sticker settlement in recorded history).

ARTICLE XXII — CURRENCY, UNITS AND FUNDAMENTAL CONSTANTS

The physics and economics of the union, peer-reviewed by both parties at 2 a.m.

22.1 Currency. All fines, bribes, damages, and settlements under this Agreement are denominated in Bournvilles, pegged at ₹110 per bar and computed to no fewer than sixteen (16) decimal places, per the conversion of 06/03/25 ($₹20,000 = 181.81818181818181$ bars). The currency’s origin — the Boyfriend misreading a request for a Bougainvillea garden as “a garden with Bournvilles growing” — is preserved in the founding mythology, and the garden is being planted anyway (Article XXVIII).

22.2 Fundamental constants. The following are enshrined as physical constants of this relationship, not subject to revision by any future physics: $23\heartsuit 27$ (her attendance fraction, sanctified 17/05/2023, verified $23 \times 27 = 621$ by difference of squares on 15/04/26); the SI Unit of Love, U — “The symbol for Uranium is the same as the SI Unit of Love. U.” (08/11/25, a line that made its recipient cry, as all good physics should); the exchange rate of 143, permanently outbid at 1.44; and $e \cdot \pi \cdot c$ — Euler’s number, π , and the speed of light — which, read out in order, spells “epic” (his own line, 21/08/25).

22.3 The 19 Theorem. The midnight lecture of 22/12/25 — in which 1083, divided by 19, yields 57, which is itself divisible by 19, and 19^2 , being 361, digit-sums back to 19, and all of it, somehow, relates to us — is entered into the record as both (a) sound number theory and (b) the most Sheldon-coded courtship display since the original series. No number written by the Boyfriend shall be presumed meaningless: “You think your man would write numbers without meanings?”

22.4 Isotope doctrine. The Parties are inseparable like isotopes of Uranium (17/04/25), and, per the lock-and-key model independently derived by the Girlfriend (30/08/25), constitute a single system with two redundant hearts. Geographic separation shall not be construed as actual separation (see Article XII).

ARTICLE XXIII — FAITH, FESTIVALS AND NAZAR MANAGEMENT

Written with complete sincerity, because this part always was.

23.1 The Bappa Continuity Clause. Ganpati shall be welcomed in every future shared household, in full five-day observance, every year, in perpetuity — per the vow of 31/08/25 (“no matter what I’m gonna stay here all 5 days and so will you”) and the attendance promise of 14/01/26, whose governing term — “YOU CANT TAKE BACKIES” — is incorporated verbatim as the strictest language in this document. The Boyfriend commits to aarti proficiency, tested annually; visarjan tears are permitted and, on the evidence, guaranteed.

23.2 All gratitude filings to Bhagwaanji shall be jointly signed; major good news triggers a joint “Thank you Bhagwaanji ☺♥” within twenty-four hours. Mandir visits made “for both of us” accrue blessings to the couple jointly, and the record confirms the system is operational: he recited the Hanuman Chalisa from memory for the first time on 03/03/26, and she is the documented reason he found his way back to temples at all.

23.3 Ekadashi and fast days are jointly observed under Article IX. The eclipse-fasting rules, the Wednesday and Tuesday mandir rounds, and the no-posting-until-home travel rule are codified as received. The ☺ protocol operates at all times under Article VIII.

ARTICLE XXIV — THE CALENDAR OF OBSERVANCES

The liturgical year of the union, with tolerances.

24.1 5 January — the Anniversary, observed annually with a tolerance of ± 0 seconds, IST jurisdiction (precedent: 12:00:10 a.m., 05/01/25; “to the exact secondddddd”). Three years and counting, per the midnight filing of 05/01/26.

24.2 12 December — Origin Day (“Nescafe”; the physics-notes-and-wallet story), retold annually with no material deviations; embellishments require the written consent of the witness, her.

24.3 3 March — Ring Day, on which the Schedule of Annual Ring Disbursements executes: one (1) ring per relationship-year, nazar-certified. Broken rings are deemed to have completed their work and shall be honorably succeeded, not mourned (“It just means you’re making room for a new ring from me”).

24.4 27 February — her birthday, a Class-A holiday: midnight message mandatory under the 11:55 p.m. Protocol, one custom-built website customary (precedent: ijustababy.com, 2026), and all age-gap jokes — she being the elder stateswoman by one hundred seventy-eight (178) days — remain protected speech.

24.5 23 August — his birthday, and as of 2026 a Joint Federal Holiday commemorating one birthday, one VIT convocation, and one shared Ekadasi tithi: “My baby graduated. We’re still together. Yaayie ☺♥.” Astrological objections will not be entertained; the universe has already co-signed.

24.6 4 May — Founders’ Day, commemorating the first time a stranger bought a product of the Boyfriend’s (04/05/2023). 30 September — Millennium Day, honoring Day 1000 (30/09/25, Durga Ashtami). Day 1500 has been pre-computed by the Party with the 2600 chess rating and is calendared with festival cross-references, as required.

The shared canon, its jurisdictions, and the Anushka Box.

25.5 Rules of evidence. Any reel, image, or seal video captioned “Us when?” is admissible as binding proof of intent to grow old together. Objections may be raised only in the form of a better reel. The Tamasha Provision: the Boyfriend’s documented recall of her favourite film down to the timestamp — one hour twenty-two minutes — sets the evidentiary bar for what “paying attention” means in this jurisdiction.

The Retail Accord, as amended, with the gift-durability standard.

26.2 Gifts to him require prior written approval, per the pre-approval doctrine of July 2025 (“I am the choosiest person... run everything by me”), which, both Parties acknowledge, defeats the purpose, and is nonetheless the law.

26.3 The Gift Durability Standard. Presents to her shall skew toward the keepable and treasurable (“You give me stuff I can keep with me and treasure forever”); perishables are permitted only as accessories to the main gift. Surprise logistics involving her calendar require a one-question consultation. His self-imposed fifteen-day maximum interval between spontaneous gift procurements is noted, audited, and — the auditors confess — adored.

26.4 The Grand Gesture Clause. Major apologies and anniversaries may be lawfully discharged in the form of working software. The lineage — the bot that emails only her; the grievance portal; the love-notes app; ijustababy.com; one bespoke daily Wordle — establishes deployed websites as love letters with uptime requirements, and their uptime as a joint relationship KPI. A minimum of one (1) hand-coded artifact per relationship-year is hereby contractual. This document is aware that it is, itself, this year’s filing.

ARTICLE XXVII — THE MUTUAL ARCHIVE AND CHAT SOVEREIGNTY

On the keeping of wrappers, letters, roses, and 305,002 messages.

27.1 Both Parties are appointed Keepers of the Record in perpetuity. The verified holdings include: her pre-dating letter (his vault); the green sa card from 9th standard (his vault, since 9th standard); the first Cadbury wrapper (“the cover stays with me forever” — her vault, since 01/07/2023, alongside a September 2022 predecessor); the first rose, preserved and taped; one treasure box, contents: his handwritten letter; and one photo per wallet, declared portable joint property, non-transferable.

27.2 No wrapper, card, rose, or letter may be discarded without a joint hearing and a unanimous two-party vote, which shall never pass.

27.3 The Chat Preservation Decree (29/01/25) is elevated to constitutional rank: the chat is the official record of the relationship and joint intellectual property; unilateral deletions require a two-party vote which, the Parties note, will always end 1–1. The Decree’s governing principle — “You can’t tempt me with diamonds over memories” — is also this document’s birth certificate: an agreement compiled from that very chat is, by her own ruling, the only compliant gift.

27.4 The Girlfriend’s thesis — one hundred and three pages, peer-review-adjacent — already classifies the Boyfriend under “family” (14/04/26). This Agreement merely formalizes existing precedent, and the Boyfriend requests the minutes reflect that he has still not fully recovered.

ARTICLE XXVIII — THE HOUSEHOLD OF THE FUTURE

Pre-ratified by the Kaajal legislature across 2025–2026; codified here without amendment.

28.1 Site plan. The future residence shall include, at minimum: one home mandir (vision filed 04/04/26); one ladder-equipped library with a load-bearing Harry Potter shrine (grandfathered into all floor plans, 25/05/26); one theatre room; one home gym; strategic ice-cream reserves; and one garden bearing white and magenta bougainvillea, per the request logged 09/12/24 — the oldest standing line-item in the shared specification, which therefore outranks almost everything.

28.2 Operations. Dinner is a joint session with a mandatory quorum of two, ruled “non negotiable, it’s a marriage” (30/06/26); the early-dinner preference of December 2025 is noted with approval. Roti production is assigned to him; sabzi and dal to her; coffee service alternates per the Accords of January and March 2025. Elaborate meals by the Boyfriend number no fewer than six (6) per annum, a figure negotiated up from one (1) in hard bargaining he is still proud of losing. Sunday breakfast-in-bed obligations survive per the pledge of 22/06/25.

28.3 Standards. Household cleanliness standards are set by the Girlfriend, in perpetuity, per her formal disclaimer of February 2026 (“one big disclaimer is that I’m a clean freak”). Hangers shall be employed; towels shall never be wet upon beds; cushions shall stand arranged. The Boyfriend’s work table is recognized as a sovereign micro-state exempt from inspection. All maintenance requests expire after three-to-four (3–4) reminders, at which point completion is automatic and non-optional (ratified 30/06/26).

28.4 The Treasury. Full ledger transparency; independent accounts vesting solely in her name; a 50/50 partnership in all wealth built (28/08/25); and the standing note that his phone password already encodes the anniversary — a disclosure he made voluntarily, several times daily, before this clause existed. “Divas don’t pay” remains a gift policy, not a governance model.

28.5 The Disclosure Milestone. The Parties commit, on their own schedule and in their own words, to graduating from cover stories to formal introductions — the plan already on record being the right one: “We’ll manaofy them. No fun without their blessings.” Father-buddy status shall be pursued via legitimate means: chess, fitness talk, and Ferrero Rocher.

28.6 Pencil markings. A certain date in March 2027 exists in this Agreement only as pencil, not ink — noted, smiled at, and left entirely to its rightful owners, with the Girlfriend’s career-completion contingency holding senior priority and the Boyfriend’s enthusiasm holding unlimited, unsecured, junior-but-very-loud priority.

ARTICLE XXIX — OFFSPRING, MENAGERIE AND THE PENGUIN SUCCESSION

Dependents actual, plush, aquatic, and hypothetical.

29.1 The Offspring Provision. Headcount is fixed at two (2) per sworn kasam dated 23/06/26, with the explicit no-coercion, career-doesn’t-pause understanding of 27/06/26 controlling all scheduling. All proposals of five (5), twenty-five (25), or “replicas” shall be entered into the minutes as humor, where they are doing very well. The Ice Cream Countermeasure is pre-authorized in all future scolding scenarios (“AND TAKE HER FOR ICECREAM WHEN YOU SHOUT AT HER”), academic marks are declared officially non-material, and 2 a.m. ice-cream runs are pre-approved, grey sweatpants included.

29.2 The Penguin Succession. The crown of Penguland descends as follows: King Pengu (Dada), King Pengu the Second (Papa), King Pengu the Third (the Boyfriend, declared 05/01/25), with Queen Penguana reigning co-equal and the style “Princess of Penguland” held in reserve for the next generation. Alfie the sea-green penguin plushie (DOB 12 March) is granted dual citizenship, a seat on the London flight, and non-transferable candle-blowing privileges, having discharged them with distinction at the 21st-birthday proceedings. Only one Pengu on record can face a polar bear and win, per the lecture of 07/02/25, 12:14 a.m., and this Agreement is not brave enough to contradict him.

29.3 The Menagerie Clause. All animal acquisitions require a full-household vote, per the Rule of 28/01/2025. The alpaca question remains sub judice, with one Party lobbying “ALPACAS FOR THE WIN” and the other consulting his empire. Lizzy’s visitation rights shall be renegotiated in good faith prior to any cohabitation, with the Girlfriend holding veto power and, as previously disclosed, a really sharp pair of scissors.

ARTICLE XXX — AMBITIONS, EMPIRES AND THE ADVISORY BOARD

Mongolia shall be conquered on weekdays only.

30.1 The Boyfriend's campaigns — announced under the standing sign-offs "I have to go Conquer Mongolia" and "Empire's not gonna build itself" — are recognized as courtship infrastructure, his stated purpose of wealth being, on the record and in his own words, to take care of her and to take her places. Success is celebrated jointly; recalibrations trigger snacks, not shame; and no revenue target, however audacious, shall ever be scheduled against the Anushka Box (Article XXV).

30.2 The Advisory Board. The Girlfriend is confirmed as lifetime Advisory Board of The Archer Media, her seat established by prior acknowledgment in a 103-page thesis and her compensation fixed at cold coffee and sixty percent commission on all ideas she likes. Her official portfolio: Chief of Pre-Meeting Cheering ("All best daddy 🤔🤔"), Keeper of the "proud of you" ledger (which she leads 103 to 44), and sole authorized issuer of wartime speeches, including the standing classic: "You're the winner. Come back with your win to me. I'll be waiting."

30.3 Poker and sovereign currency. The future battle-room poker table is hard-capped at one thousand (1000) units of Ridit Land Currency, strictly fake, never convertible — governing principle, hers: "Never forget where we come from."

ARTICLE XXXI — GENERAL PROVISIONS (THE BOILERPLATE OF LOVE)

In which standard legal language discovers what it was always for.

31.1 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is held invalid, the Parties shall remain inseverable anyway (isotope doctrine, Article XXII). The invalid clause shall be repaired with stickers and re-ratified by Yaayie.

31.2 Entire Agreement. This document, together with its Schedules, Exhibits, the sealed annex, and 305,002 messages of legislative history, constitutes the entire agreement — while expressly acknowledging it is the smaller half of something much larger that does not fit on paper.

31.3 Governing law and forum. This Agreement is governed by the laws of the Court of Us, sitting in continuous session across Mumbai and London. Appeals lie to the Grievance Portal; final appeal lies to whoever is being hugged at the time.

31.4 Amendments. Amendments require mutual consent, one (1) hug of not less than twenty (20) seconds, and entry in Schedule F. Amendments proposed via 🤔 are presumptively granted. New vocabulary enters the Official Lexicon (Schedule A) only upon ratification by both Parties via Yaayie.

31.5 Force majeure. Bad days, low batteries, exam weeks, client emergencies, and British weather suspend performance of non-essential clauses only. The following are essential and never suspended: the Goodnight Liturgy, the Departure Protocol, the Guaranteed Response, and love, which — per the Nariyal Paani Provision — operates at full capacity even mid-argument.

31.6 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, including by emoji signature (precedent: 🖋️🤔📄 / 🖋️🤔📄, 20/03/25), each of which is an original, and all of which together constitute one instrument, one team, one very long-running bit that became a life.

ARTICLE XXXII — THE ACTUAL POINT

32.1 Thirty-one articles of law, and here, as required by the drafting conventions of this household, the fine print where the truth lives.

32.2 The record shows that on New Year's Eve 2024, asked for one word for all of this, the Boyfriend wrote "Peace." The record shows the Girlfriend's ruling of 3 March 2025, which this document adopts as its deepest definition: "You're my home... Bed nahi ho. Home ho." Everything above — every protocol, every seal, every penguin — is scaffolding around those two sentences.

32.3 The record shows that when he was lowest, at midnight on an anniversary, he told her that everyone goes, everyone leaves, no one stays — and that she did. The Staying Clause is therefore unnumbered, unwitnessed, and unconditional: presence during hard nights is guaranteed, no notice required, labs and deadlines notwithstanding. It has been in continuous force since before it was written down. It does not expire in any time zone.

32.4 The record shows her accounting method — "when I count my blessings, I count you twice" — and his: that being with her is no different from being with himself, which she confirmed, independently, in her own words, fourteen months apart. Double-entry bookkeeping; a single system; two redundant hearts. The math, as always between these two, checks out.

32.5 And because she boards a plane on 23 September carrying one-quarter's worth of doubt and nine-and-three-quarters' worth of everything it takes: the Platform $9\frac{3}{4}$ Provision. Doubt is capped at one quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$) per Party per crisis; the remaining $9\frac{3}{4}$ shall board the train. A daily protected time block survives all time zones, deadlines, and continents. He has hours in him if it's listening to her — not even kidding, it's in the record — and there is no woman in this world for him like her. She's his one.

32.6 She is going to London because she is brilliant, and she is coming home because home was never a postcode (Article I, Section 1.1(b)). Between those two facts runs everything this Agreement was ever for: a blessing before every departure, a formula before every sleep, a bracelet that guards them both, and two people who have already proven — across a campus, across a country, and now across a hemisphere — that distance is simply not a member of this household.

You're Kaajal Rai. And that's reason enough.

— entered into the permanent record on 18 December 2024, reaffirmed 30 October 2025, and hereby made perpetual.
Ilommushommunommu. ☺♥

EXHIBIT S — THE STATISTICAL RECORD

Being an exact, machine-verified census of the documentary record (305,002 messages), offered so that neither Party may ever again claim, in the heat of argument, that the other one “never says it.”

The Parties stipulate to the following facts, computed line-by-line from the complete WhatsApp record of May 6, 2023 – July 27, 2023 and December 5, 2024 – September 2, 2026. The intervening period is unarchived; the love therein is stipulated nonetheless.

Messages sent between midnight and 4:00 a.m.	49,152	16.1% of the entire record
Longest unbroken streak of consecutive days in contact	637 days	Active as of execution date
Busiest single day on record (July 23, 2023)	1,850 msgs	A Sunday. Obviously

Stipulation S-1. The combined 469 hours of calls equal 19.6 uninterrupted days of gazing at each other through screens. The Parties agree this was time well spent and commit, under the Long-Distance Provisions herein, to extending this ledger indefinitely.

Stipulation S-2. The ☹️ census stands at 5,354 (him) to 5,480 (her) — a statistical dead heat. The Parties conclude they are equally invested in protecting one another from the evil eye, which is, frankly, the entire thesis of this document.

EXHIBIT Q — SELECTED PASSAGES FROM THE RECORD

Entered into evidence without objection. The record, as ever, speaks for itself.

From the founding era (May–July 2023):

“You is strong. You is smart. You is kind. And you is love of mine.” — him, 07/05/2023

“You let me go from surviving to thriving.” — him, 2023

“If you want to cry, we will cry together.” — her, 17/06/2023

“I like me better when I’m with you.” — 2023, jointly lived ever since

From the record at large:

“Before I loved you even, I was inspired by you.” — her, 05/01/25

“I’d sit on the first bench just to be next to you.” — him, 28/08/25 — ruled her favourite line of all time

“Already took care of that. We have been married for the last 7 years.” — her, as Donna, 08/01/25

“You’re sexy when you do math.” — her, establishing the entire genre of Article XXII

“I’m standing in front of your society hehe. I’m so in love with you.” — him, 02/03/25, 11 p.m.
